Journal Mission and Scope

The Auk: Ornithological Advances is an international, peer-reviewed journal that publishes original research and scholarship advancing the fundamental scientific knowledge of bird species and broad biological concepts (e.g., ecology, evolution, behavior, physiology, genetics) through studies of bird species. Articles often introduce or employ innovative empirical and theoretical approaches and analyses.

Topics covered in the journal include:

- Evolutionary history and paleontology
- Systematics and nomenclature
- Behavioral ecology
- Foraging strategies and tactics
- Population biology and ecology
- Molecular ecology
- Community and landscape ecology
- Migration and orientation
- Spacing patterns and habitat use
- Genetics and genomics
- Epigenetics, and evolutionary development
- Physiology and biochemistry
- Morphology and anatomy
- Integrative and cross-disciplinary studies
- Theoretical and methodological advances
- Thematic reviews and opinion pieces

Journals of the American Ornithological Society

The American Ornithological Society publishes two peer-reviewed, international journals of ornithology. The Auk: Ornithological Advances focuses on basic ornithological science. The Condor: Ornithological Applications focuses on applied ornithological study. The redefined, separate missions of the journals in 2014 created an opportunity for them to work together to publish the best science in basic and applied ornithology and to build on their long histories as top journals in the field of avian biology.

Journal Information: The Auk: Ornithological Advances publishes original research and scholarship advancing the fundamental scientific knowledge of bird species and broad biological concepts (e.g., ecology, evolution, behavior, physiology, genetics) through studies of bird species. Appropriate topics include documentation, analysis, and interpretation of laboratory and field studies; theoretical or methodological developments; and reviews of information or ideas. Authors are encouraged to write papers from the perspective of general concepts and theories and to consider the relevance of their findings to taxa in addition to birds. Contributions are welcomed from around the world but must be written in English. The Auk was published from 1884 to 2016 by the American Ornithologists' Union (AOU), and as of 2016 is published by the American Ornithological Society (a merger of the AOU and the Cooper Ornithological Society). The Auk became The Auk: Ornithological Advances in 2014. The articles in this journal reflect the research and opinions of the individual authors. As such, the articles do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the editors or any official policy of the American Ornithological Society.

MEMBERSHIP

Any person interested in avian biology may become a member of the American Ornithological Society. Regular membership costs $90 per year; Early Professional membership is $55; Emeritus/retired and student memberships are $32. Membership is $32 for persons in all countries except the United States, Canada, Israel, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, and the following Western European countries: Iceland, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, France, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, Spain, and Portugal. All members receive free access to the online version of The Auk: Ornithological Advances and The Condor: Ornithological Applications and Birds of North America Online (www.birdsna.org). A life membership is $2880, paid in one sum or four annual installments of $720. To JOIN, RENEW, or UPDATE your membership, visit the AOS website membership page to link to the membership portal. To report changes of address or to request assistance, contact: osnamembers@gmail.com, (312) 883-4670.

SUPPORT THE AOS

AOS is grateful to receive contributions of any amount. Donations help support AOS's programs to advance ornithology as a profession and promote ornithologists at every career stage. Contributions may be sent to: AOS, 1400 S. Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL, 60605; or, can be made online through AOS's website, AmericanOrnithology.org. Gifts to the AOS are tax-deductible to the full extent permitted by law.

INSTITUTIONAL SUBSCRIPTIONS

Institutional subscriptions are handled by the American Ornithological Society, 1400 South Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL 60605, 312-665-7571, 312-883-4114 FAX, cruiz@americanornithology.org. $400 for an annual online subscription to The Condor: Ornithological Applications, $400 for an annual online subscription to The Auk: Ornithological Advances, and $700 for both The Condor: Ornithological Applications and The Auk: Ornithological Advances.
