THE CONDOR ONLINE: Access the Cooper Ornithological Society's website, www.cooper.org, to find tables of contents and abstracts for issues from February 2001 through the forthcoming issue, in English and Spanish. The COS website also provides prospective authors with current instructions for authors.

Numbers of the Rusty Blackbird (Euphagus carolinus) are in steep decline. A special section in this issue of the Condor addresses the species' basic biology and factors possibly contributing to the decline, such as blood parasites, mercury contamination, and habitat change from logging. Membership: Any person interested in avian biology may become a member of the Cooper Ornithological Society. Regular membership rates (which include both online and print versions of The Condor) are US$80 per year in select countries (United States, Canada, western Europe, Iceland, Australia, New Zealand, Israel, Japan, Republic of Korea, and Taiwan), $25 per year in all other countries, $55 for student members, $30 for emeritus members, $100 for families. Individuals may opt to receive only the online version for a reduced membership rate of $40 per year, $25 for student members. If applying for student rates, include a brief, signed statement from an academic advisor certifying student status. North American members also receive the bimonthly Ornithological Newsletter. All correspondence regarding membership, including dues payments and changes of address, should go to Ornithological Societies of North America (OSNA), 5400 Bosque Blvd., Suite 680, Waco, TX 76710, or business@osnabirds.org

Publications: The Condor is a quarterly journal devoted to the biology of wild birds. It publishes research reports, review articles, and commentary. Contributors should refer to the Instructions for Authors published in the February issue and on the Cooper Ornithological Society website, www.cooper.org. The Condor (ISSN 0010-5422, e-ISSN 1938-5129) is published quarterly (February, May, August, November) by the University of California Press, Journals and Digital Publishing Division, 2000 Center Street, Suite 303, Berkeley, CA 94704-1223, for the Cooper Ornithological Society. Periodicals postage paid at Berkeley, CA, and additional mailing offices. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to The Condor, University of California Press, Journals and Digital Publishing, 2000 Center Street, Suite 303, Berkeley, CA 94704-1223.
