BioOne Complete (complete.BioOne.org) is a full-text database of 200 subscribed and open-access titles in the biological, ecological, and environmental sciences published by nonprofit societies, associations, museums, institutions, and presses.

Your use of this PDF, the BioOne Complete website, and all posted and associated content indicates your acceptance of BioOne's Terms of Use, available at www.bioone.org/terms-of-use.

Usage of BioOne Complete content is strictly limited to personal, educational, and non - commercial use. Commercial inquiries or rights and permissions requests should be directed to the individual publisher as copyright holder.

BioOne sees sustainable scholarly publishing as an inherently collaborative enterprise connecting authors, nonprofit publishers, academic institutions, research libraries, and research funders in the common goal of maximizing access to critical research.

ACKNOWLEDGING THE GENEROSITY OF OUR DONORS

The long-term vitality and vibrancy of the American Society of Mammalogists depend upon the philanthropy of our members and others interested in supporting our programs of research, education, and outreach. Consequently, we gratefully acknowledge the generosity of those who have made monetary contributions to the Society over the past year. Such financial contributions have been particularly critical in supporting the careers of the next generation of mammalogists – our students. Funds to which donations can be directed include: a) African Student Fund; b) Century Fund; c) Future Mammalogists Fund (including donations from the annual auction); d) General Reserve Fund; e) Latin American Student Field Mammalogy Research Fund; and f) Oliver Pearson Fund. Details about these funds can be found at <http://www.mammalogy.org/whatsnew/announcements.html>. (#Donations made to the General Reserve Fund in support of the ASM Fellowship Award).
